

For Energy Efficiency, "Not Applicable" has been selected under Construction Type. The project does not involve rehabilitation of the stadium proper. Work will occur primarily around the outside of the stadium. Work that is done inside the stadium will be limited to flood proofing and flood mitigation items. The stadium is believed to meet requirements of the current state building energy code. However, an audit has not been performed.